

Parent-Teacher Conferences

At the elementary level, parent-teacher conferences will be held on the Friday following the end of the first nine weeks grading period, and on an as need basis for the third nine week grading period.

At the high school level, parent-teacher conferences will be held within ten (10) school days following the end of the first nine week grading period, and on an as-needed basis for the third nine weeks.

Pupil-Parent-Teacher Conferences

Teachers should call for parent conferences as soon as a child begins to show signs of a possible problem.

Policy History:

Adopted on: 7/15/09

Revised on: