

Announcements and Assemblies

Announcements

Announcements will be made each morning by the Student Body President and occasionally by the Superintendent or Principal. Any other announcements should be made at the first of the period immediately after the bell. All announcements should be written out in detail and left in a basket in the outer office.

Assemblies

Student body assemblies are held throughout the year. Each instructor shall proceed with his/her class and sit among the students.

Pep Assemblies are generally held when an important game is coming up. Individual advisors should sit with their classes.

National School Assemblies are generally held three or four times a year. Classroom teacher should proceed to the gym with their class and sit amongst the students.

Other Assemblies. Classroom teachers should proceed to the gym with their class and sit amongst the students.
